COMING OF AGE

Issue #12 sorta completes a cycle for us. Next month we'll celebrate our first Anniversary. Lots of folks thought we'd never make it this far, but our passive ad sales technique has miraculously allowed most issues to break even.* We plan to upgrade paper quality in September with other surprises and improvements then and later. As mentioned elsewhere, we're kicking off our Birthday month with a celebration at Kerrville Too and other potential parties are in discussion, so watch out for MC#13. Speaking of MC events, we were knocked out by the large turn-out of music adventurers on the Sunday of our July Summer Lightning Showcase. We choose six of the best of Chicago House Open Mike performers from the previous six months or so and gave each a 40 min set to show their stuff. And did they strut! Look out for George Bancroft, Mary Melena, Barbara Clark, Kathi Nordone, TJ Zark and Blue Devils. Chicago House was pleased, we were proud—and we even managed to pay the performers. As soon as we can find six or so new artists worthy, we will host another, perhaps a Rise In Fall version.

* MC would, however, like to assure readers that under no circumstances will they be exposed to details of our personal lives, no matter how tragic.

PAY ATTENTION

• Local music lovers will want to see Capitol City Playhouse's production of the classic tale, The Velveteen Rabbit, with original music from Eliza Gilkyson, Beto Skiles, Ray Benson, Joe Scruggs, Butch Hancock, Robert McEntee, Poi Dog Pondering, Marcia Ball, Jo Carol Pierce and Bob Watkins. Runs thru August 18; call 472-2966 for reservations.

• SXSW's Eve McArthur is calling for Austin Battle of the Bands volunteers. ABoB won't use as many folks as the Spring event, but this is a new project, so she hopes the most dedicated and experienced will call in. ABoB runs Sept 25—Oct 6, with the finals on Oct 12. Details in September MC. Vols report to 477-7979.

• Speaking of SXSW, application forms for 1991 Showcases are now available—submissions will be accepted Sept 1—Jan 4. For forms or info on early (cheap) registration, write SXSW '91, Box 49066, Austin, 78765.

• Texas Music Association is again recruiting successful artists and producers in an attempt to form a local chapter of the National Academy of Recording Arts and Sciences (NARAS). This could be another beneficial step in Austin's music industry development; for more info, call Casey Monahan at 320-9562. 300 voting-eligible members are needed to qualify for a chapter.

MVP #12 CHARLIE HOLLIS

This month our pick is a technician rather than a performer. In MC's 1989 music poll, Charlie Hollis' Mid-Austin Recording Studio was acclaimed Best Studio, a MARS product, Betty Elders' Daddy's Coal, won Best Independent Tape, and Hollis was voted #3 Producer and #4 Man Of The Year.

• "In Oklahoma, if someone asks a musician what he does, it's easier to tell them you're a bum. They understand that." Hollis connected into the disreputable Okie music world at OSU, Stillwater, playing bass, briefly with Jimmy LaFave's Night Tribe, but in 1984 his fledgling Studio 131 permanently sidetracked him. "I've had a tape recorder longer than I've had a guitar. We all wanted to record stuff, but it was so expensive. Doing it myself, I figured we'd make the recordings and still have the equipment afterwards."

• Hollis was lured to Austin in 1987. "I struggled hard at music in Oklahoma, but it seems so futile. It really does drive musicians away. Coming to Austin was the best thing I could have done, even if it was by accident. It's still tough to make any money, but at least you get some appreciation, which you don't in Oklahoma."

• The appreciation is from acoustic musicians for whom Hollis offers an affordable, non-intimidating entry into the perils of independent cassette recording. What makes him special isn't his low prices or his equipment—scarcely state of the art—but intelligence and empathy. In short, his ears.

• Hollis hit Texas running with his first Austin project, for fellow Okie Jimmy LaFave. "Just when we were wondering how the hell we were going to get through, Highway Angels... Full Moon Rain won Tape of The Year in the Chronicle's 88-89 music awards. That attracted a lot of attention from people who were looking for a studio." Recently, a major Texas studio has conjured up the awe-inspiring prospect of Hollis Unbound, enlisting his expertise on major projects. JC

TEXAS HYMNAL #12

Two views of the Texas-Oklahoma axis, the first a C&W pastoreale contributed by Chris O'Connell, who likes it because it's really difficult to play. The other is a more traditional Texan opinion, but it ain't chauvinism because Dallas-based Hubbard hails from Hugo, Oklahoma, so we'd guess he knows what he's talking about.

FREDDY POWERS: TEXAS AND OKLAHOMA

Texas and Oklahoma mean a lot to me
I was born in Oklahoma and raised in the Lone Star State
I love everything about Tulsa and that ol' cowtown, you see
Texas and Oklahoma, you're like mama and daddy to me.

I still love the smell of an oilwell and Texas bluebonnets in bloom.

I still like to ride through those Oklahoma hills
And dance to the music of our own Bob Wills.

Texas and Oklahoma, you're like mama and daddy to me.

RAY WYLIE HUBBARD

TEXAS IS A STATE OF MIND

Texas is a state of mind that I have been living in
You know Dallas is a woman with cognac in her veins
Houston is an oilfield and Austin is a cocaine deal
Fort Worth's a hooker, San Antonio's a train

Down in Texas we embarrass the devil
With the belch of tequila and that sweet smell of grass
We've got some soul savers, we've got some hell raisers
Good looking womens, we've got cowboys out the ass

Texas is a real good place to live and to visit
Way down here with the grace of God
And a little luck
They said Texas would fall off into the Gulf
'Cept for the fact that Oklahoma sucks

ALVIN CROW MUSIC CITY DOSSIER #12

Occupations: Singer/songwriter, fiddler, band leader
Current Groups: Alvin Crow & The Pleasant Valley Boys, first formed in Amarillo in late 60s.

Born: Oklahoma City—there was no hospital in Choctaw; grew up in Sweetwater, OK—so near the Texas line that we felt we had dual citizenship.

Parents: Lora Mae Tignor & Para Crow. Dad worked for the FAA; mother was a homemaker, harmonica player, singer.

Married: Stephanie Geller, store mgr. for Leaps & Bounds

Children: Four from a previous marriage: ages 10, 12, 14, 18 (the eldest is a "rebel rock n' roll guitarist").

Influences: My family—aunts and uncles played and encouraged me, gave me a fiddle, etc. Also, Jimmie Rogers, Bob Wills, Hank Williams, Buddy Holly, Eddie Cochran, James Brown, Joe Tex.

First Public Performance: Playing fiddle at family gatherings; entered a talent show about age 10; formed a band at age 12 (The Vaqueros) to play songs I was writing.

First Paid Performance: Vaqueros played teen dances once or twice a week; they were held in all the city parks

First Recording: Alvin Crow & The Pleasant Valley Boys (Longneck Records, 1975), Odyssey Studios, Austin.

Other Recordings: High Ridin' (Polydor, 1977); Alvin Crow & The Neon Angels (1973 bootleg demo, released 1979); Border Wave and Sir Douglas Quintet Live (Takoma, 1979/80); Welcome To Texas (Broken Spoke, 1984); Long Texas Nights, (Broken Spoke, 1986); Texas Mavericks: Who Are These Masked Men? (New Rose, 1986, Pure Country (Broken Spoke, 1988); Honky Tonk Trail (Broken Spoke, 1989); Doin' It Jesse's Way: A

Tribute To Jesse Ashlock (Broken Spoke, 1990)

Favorite Songwriters: Hank Williams, Willie Nelson.

Favorite Fiddlers: Chubby Wise and Bob Wills, especially for their expressiveness with the instrument.

Favorite Venue: Broken Spoke—it's me in my natural habitat.

Reason For Living In Austin: Visited here in '71 to see the Armadillo, saw Kenneth Threadgill and his band play to enthusiastic audiences and figured if they liked him, they'd appreciate the music we were making. So I went back to Pleasant Valley outside Amarillo, where I was living, and moved here to stay.

SCHOLZ GARTEN

When you change an historical Texas institution like Scholz Garten, which celebrates its 124th Birthday on August 18th, you'd better make the right kind of changes. And Scholz's has changed—just a little and just enough.

• After going through ownership and management zigzags in the past few years, Scholz Garten now seems to have created an atmosphere suitable for Austinites and out-of-towners alike. Most any night, you can hear local artists from David Halley to Zydeco Ranch to High Noon to Uranium Savages to Lou Ann Barton to Tish Hinojosa playing in the beer garden under giant elms. In keeping with the German influence August Scholz started in 1866, Tuesday night is German Night with free German cuisine and a live oompah band.

• Scholz Garten will host a Zydeco & Blues Festival on Labor Day Weekend with 16 bands from in and out of Texas performing during the three days beginning Thursday, August 30th.

• The musical diversity comes from making John Thorson general manager. Thorson has been associated with some fine Austin restaurants, and came to his latest position with some specific goals.

"I want to carry on the tradition that Scholz's originally had of providing the best entertainment and the best dining," said Thorson. "I want people to feel comfortable here—comfortable with the service, comfortable with the atmosphere, comfortable with their friends."

• "Comfortable" fits Scholz's just fine. Even with subtle changes, the historical appeal has not been lost. If anything, Scholz Garten has returned to the ambience and charisma that's attracted students, politicians and just plain folks for over a hundred years.

• Scholz Garten, 1607 San Jacinto, is a couple blocks south of UT with easy evening/weekend parking.

• If you remember Scholz's, but haven't given it a try recently, it's okay now. It's safe to come back to an important part of Austin.

STOUT FELLOW

If you were asked to name the biggest record label in Austin, chances are you wouldn't think of PeeWee, might not even have heard of it, but with 22 albums on their current list, they're way in front. That Eddie Stout's operation has such a low profile is due not so much to being a grassroots Central Texas blues specialist as to the fact that most of his albums are imports. Only six cassettes are available domestically, but PeeWee products have been put out, on LPs and CDs, by companies in Britain, France, Germany, Holland and Spain. Stout has also organized foreign deals for four other labels, making him, if nothing, else, the licence king of Texas, though he feels he's barely scratched Austin's potential world wide appeal.

• To illustrate PeeWee's activities, Stout's Austin Music Scene Vol 2 compilation CD and a Paul Orta album (see Reviews) have just been released in France and a Denny Freeman & The Cobras record should be out any day in Germany. A second French Orta album is scheduled for September, with the same company putting out a compilation based on Stout's recent Texas Harmonica Rumble show at Antone's. Also in September, PeeWee artist Beverly Stauber, an early Brenda Lee style rockabilly shouter from Dallas, goes into the studio with rockabilly giants High Noon, Chris O'Connell, Junior Brown and Talltop Steve 'Tom-Tom' Fulton to record for a British label.

• Stout's overseas success is probably due to the fact that he operates like the small European labels, backing judgement and trust in fellow enthusiasts against the bottom line. Unlike other Austin labels who will spend profit-free months tinkering with a perfectly acceptable recording, he wastes no time on second thoughts or Big Deal fantasies. Orta, for instance, goes into the studio in August to lay down his September release.

• Back at Antone's, Stout is assembling many of the performers on the Austin Music Scene 2 album for a monster two nighter, part of the Texas Lovers Tour 90s (see PREviews and Calendar).

MUSIC CITY RECORD & TAPE REVIEWS

CAFE MANHATTAN

(independent cassette)

Pianist/singer Sterling Price-McKinney sums up this live at Chicago House recording of the popular cabaret show when he calls it "music you wouldn't normally hear here in town, at least up and down 6th Street, but if you've heard Michael Feinstein at The Algonquin Hotel..." Pure Great White Way, redolent of the '30s even when it's modern—decadent, campy, bitchy, and quite extraordinarily clever songs presented with impeccably mannered delivery and backchat ("are there any of Karen's ex-husbands in the audience?"). Chanteuse Karen Kuykendall and SP-Meschew the familiar, except in Cole Porter and Rodgers & Hammerstein medleys, mining a rich vein of obscure musicals that closed virtually before opening, insouciantly assuming, for instance, that we all know who Tallulah is. Robyn Archer Sings Brecht still tops my cabaret mode hit parade, but if you get fed up with Shiner and sensitive singer-songwriters, cocktails and Cafe Manhattan are the antidote. JC

Steve Earle & The Dukes

THE HARD WAY

(MCA, CD/cassette)

A Cajun rocker, Regular Guy, sums the viewpoint of this San Antonian's latest. Chronicles of lives diverse as Billy Austin, a death row dirge sung in a world-weary, graveled voice, and Hopeless Romantics, folks who hang hope on yesterday's dreams, to a soft rock beat, combine to make this Earle's strongest, if not most commercial album. The hard, sweet Little Feat-ish Country Girl and the sly, urban Esmerelda's Hollywood contrast 1990's portraits based in deep-felt roots. Have Mercy, driving minor key Justice In Ontario and West Nashville Boogie pay respects to the have-nots, while When The People Find Out rages after the unethical powerful—with never a didactic moment. Earle throws in a bit of cynical sexism on Promise Her Anything and ends with an adult lullaby, Close Your Eyes. In all 13 cuts, The Dukes deliver exactly what's needed to a Texas-size range of styles. With radio play, Earle could join the ranks of Springsteen, Dylan and Seger. EM

IMPORT NEWS

It's a fact of Austin life that it's easier to get a deal abroad than at home—a bunch of new arrivals reinforcing my theory that US labels are legally brain dead. Whatever Happened To Maria? (Sunstorm, UK, LP), collecting Joe Ely's own songs from his 70s MCA albums, is already at Waterloo (where else?). Joining it this month are Butch Hancock & Jimmie Dale Gilmore Live In Australia: Two Roads (Virgin, Australia, CD/LP), David Halley: Stray Dog Talk (Demon, UK, CD/LP), last year's best selling tape with Darlene, Dreamlife and Tonight added, and Billy Joe Shaver Live In Australia (cassette). In the offing are Jesse Taylor: Last Night (Bedrock, UK, CD/LP), Kimmie Rhodes: Angels Get The Blues (Heartland, UK, CD/LP), and Calvin Russell: A Crack In Time (New Rose, France, CD/cassette), plus, for God's sake, wax from Freddie Steady (Czechoslovakia), Ponty Bone (Japan), Denny Freeman & The Cobras (Germany) and High Noon (Finland). Wake up, America! JC

BILLY WILSON

TO BE THE BEST

(independent cassette)

A 5-cut singer/songwriter debut, a credible effort produced at Parrot Tracks with capable assists from George Coyne and a host of excellent local musicians. This shows promise, but until he finds a more individual style and language, Wilson will have a hard time standing out in highly competitive Austin. He obviously has taste, a mature ear and eye and a business-like approach; over time he'll only improve. EM

KIRT KEMPTER

WILLIE'S ON THE WALL

(independent cassette)

Not a new tape, not a new Austinite, but after spending the last few years in Costa Rica (where these songs were written) and Baton Rouge, Kempter is introducing his work back 'home'. Folkish sounds spun together with his masterful, sweet violin, this all-original package has no outstanding flaws, occasional snippets of real beauty and creativity. Kirt will might be one to watch as he re-enters the local music olio. EM

JEAN CAFFEINE'S ALL-NITE TRUCKSTOP

(independent cassette)

Deja vu; four of the ten tracks are recycled from a JD Foster salvage operation reviewed in MC#1. But it's not so much that this new package is made up of two parts recorded at different times, in different studios, with different musicians and producers that makes it lack identity. New Wave honky tonker Caffeine uses quality materials (notably Mick Buck, Mark Rubin, Lisas Pancratz & Mednick and Tom Lewis), but there's no coherence in the fabric and a reliance on familiar motifs—for Mick Green riffs (Big Wheel), for instance, I'll play a Pirates album. The new originals, apart from Pack These Dreams Away, are notably weaker than the old, particularly Pandora's Box which could be the theme song from a spaghetti western. Last time round, I figured the genuinely idiosyncratic Hushed Tones, helped out by a woman's point of view response to Jerry Lee's That Was The Whiskey Talking, carried the rest of the tape. This time they have to work too hard. JC

PAUL ORTA Y LOS PLAYBOYS

INTERNACIONALES

I'LL KICK YOUR BOOTY!

(New Rose, import CD/LP)

Perhaps the SW's best harp player, much of Orta's staggering energy gets lost on an album with many strong points and some great material. There are killer originals like old-time blues stroll Babe, slow, sexy rolling blues Most Beautiful Woman and sweetly funky Get Out Of My Life, with such classics as Little Walter's underrated Mellow Down Easy, and a great Sun rockabilly style Love My Baby, though the dubbed in screeching ducks on Calling All Ducks get ridiculous and annoying, and the title (!) cut should never have reared its funky head. But the mix is a bother, with harp and vocals up in your face, drums not far behind, oversmooth bass tone and Bob Martin's tasty and flexible guitar ringing in from down the hall, though often salvaged by hot horn lines and pounding boogie piano. If you're into the way blues records sounded mid-60s, this is for you. KL

TOM FROST TEXAS WAYS

(Independent Release)

This San Antonian cut his songwriter's teeth around Kerrville Kampfires, an influence that is obvious in both his music and his choice of backup personnel on this debut album. Frost, who moonlights as a banker, sets his well-crafted tunes within an interesting framework supplied by the Eriks: Hokkanen on fiddle/violin and Moll (whistling/yodels), Beth Galiger on flute, Mike Williams on 12-string guitar, Danny Levin's cello and violin, Nigel Russell and Bill Bowers on banjo, Hugh Sparks' bass and blends his own distinctive voicewith vocal harmonies from Hal Michael Ketchum, Tom Roundbush, Joe Labatt, Kris Barnes and the always impressive Bernice Lewis. Tune topics are varied and mature, with a wide appeal—worthy of inclusion on other performers' albums as well. Tom Roundbush/Wyldwood Studios produced and the result does everyone proud. It's Kerrville cuisine for the kommitted. EM

TEXAS TORNADOS

(Reprise, CD/cassette)

Like a grizzled bike gang, Freddy Fender, Doug Sahm, Flaco Jimenez and Augie Meyers don't have to act tough—they plain and simple are tough, putting out a virile, muscular music that rubbishes both heavy metal macho posing and pop-rock androgyny. Of course, we're talking serious Tex-Mex with this line-up (though having an International Fan Club based in, wait for it, Ohio, is a bit of a worry), with Santiago Jimenez Sr's Soy De San Luis, Huey P Meaux's Spanish/English Baby! Heaven Sent Me You, and border songs like Augie's (Hey Baby) Que Paso and Dinero, Rich Minus' Laredo Rose, Sahm's Adios Mexico and Butch Hancock's She Never Spoke Spanish To Me. Steaming out of the chute with the Mendocino-like Who Were You Thinkin' Of, they never let up and never sounded better, especially Fender whose weepies A Man Can Cry and If That's What You're Thinking avoid his usual OTT approach, though Augie gets a bit lost in the shuffle (more B-3!). JC

RED RIVER WETBACKS TOO OOMUCH

Would the last musician to leave Oklahoma please turn off the PA? OK, it'll never come to that, but it sure seems like it sometimes. As when we realized that Okies made up a third of MC's July showcase, Summer Lightning. Odds are that any Austin bill will have some furriners, but 4 out of 9 from across the northern border? That's unequal representation.

• Seems Oklahoma has four distinct music scenes—though they're usually talked about in the past tense, as in "Stillwater was hot in the early 80s." Stillwater, home of OSU, comes across as the most important—with Norman, clustered round OU, Lawton, with its Fort Sills soldiers, and Tulsa, which had a heyday when Eric Clapton was based there—as its rivals. Everyone agrees that Oklahoma City has always been a dead loss.

• Oklahoma's most famous son is, of course, Woody Guthrie, whose family came from Texas, but the state is even less likely to put up a statue of Spade Cooley, C&W star best known for beating his wife to death. Our other favorite Okie is Wanda Jackson, but take your pick: Hoyt Axton, Elvin Bishop, Gail Davies, Mark Dinning, Stoney Edwards, Dallas Frazier, Ray Wylie Hubbard (see Texas Hymnal), Mel McDaniel, Reba McEntire, Bonnie Owens, Patti Page, Jimmie Rabbit, Leon Russell, Jean Shepherd, Otis Watkins and Sheb Wooley. Bob Wills was based in OK so long that TX must yield him dual citizenship.

• Doyen of Austin's Okies is Alvin Crow (see Dossier). Of more recent refugees, the best known, on a technicality, is David Halley, whose parents lived in Lubbock but made sure the kids were born in Oklahoma City! Some perennial MC faves are, however, the genuine item, taking an almost perverse pride in red dirt origins. Jimmy LaFave, whose long-awaited Tomato album should be out late summer, came from Stillwater with acoustic guitarist Gene Williams and they've recently been joined by guitarist Mark Lyons and singer Kerri Leigh (aka Jellyroll or The Blue Devils) enabling LaFave to reconstitute his kickass R&B/soul band Night Tribe, debuting Austin-wise this month. Our MVP, Charlie Hollis, and singer-songwriter Brad Piccolo belong in this group.

• The First Lady, who's putting together an up-front Smokin' Okie Revue, is powerhouse blues chanteuse Lillian Standfield, seen recently, and memorably, up to her knees in adoring Russians at Kerrville. Newcomer TJ Zark came from Tulsa.

• Sideokies are guitarist Hector Watt, to be heard with Lou Ann Barton and Solid Senders, and bassman Dale 'Cowboy Dick' Dennis. There must be more, but they keep quiet about it. As a switcherooni, Gary P Nunn has lived on an Oklahoma ranch for the last 20 years.

• MC trivia: a small prize for the first person to identify Mark Dinning's claim to musical fame.

If you want an almost perfect illustration of the maxim 'Less Is More,' consider Kerrville Too, Rod Kennedy's Labor Day weekend presentation at Quiet Valley Ranch. Like some rendered down version of the main festival, Too compacts its best qualities into three days (August 31st/Sept 1st/Sept 2nd) of impeccable line ups, though hardcore Kerrverts might miss the community spirit generated by their 3-week camp out. They will get to see Mike Williams on stage legally for the first time since being banned back in the Festival's dark ages. Leaflets with full details can be found at Waterloo Records, Chicago House, Cactus Cafe and like-minded locations (we do sort of wonder, though, why there's a photo of John Ims but no mention of him playing). MC will spend its first birthday down at the Ranch, and to show you why, stimulate you into getting the leaflet and drive our far-off and foreign subscribers into a green-eyed frenzy, here's a quick break down of the main stage attractions.

• 31st—Richard Dobson, Banded Geckos, Tim Henderson, Hudson & Franke, Christine Albert, Hal Michael Ketchum.

• 1st—David Halley, Jan Marra, Chris Smithers, Butch Hancock, Jimmie Dale Gilmore, Maines Brothers, Gary P Nunn.

• • MUSIC CITY PREviews

Wednesday 1st TIT FER PARLE A MOI (Blue Bayou). With their alcohol licence up in the air, the Bayou's August music seems skeletal, but Squeezetone D'Jalma Garnier is quietly masterminding a gumbo of acoustic lunch gigs that also includes his French Band Thursdays, Les Frères Aînés Fridays and the Blue Bayou Cajun All Stars Sundays (also early evening). Ingredients vary but Steve Doerr, Ponty Bone, Dan Del Santo and Keith Ferguson are regulars, with such as Lou Ann dropping by.

Wednesday 1st TROY CAMPBELL WITH RICH BROTHERTON + STEVE SPINKS + MIKE HALL (El Chino). Highwayman Campbell's weekly acoustic night with fellow songwriters kicks off August with rare sightings of Brotherton, whom Kris McKay has been keeping on the road, Spinks of the late lamented Dharma Bums and Hall of the rather less lamented Wild Seeds. Coming during August are Toni Price, Lisa Mednick, Barb Donovan, James Oliver, Randy Franklin, Jimmy LaFave and (unconfirmed) David Halley.

Wednesday 1st COLIN JAMES + MICHELLE MORGAN & DRAG THE RIVER + SUE FOLEY BAND (Antone's). Red hot white blues from three young up and comers, headlined by Jeff Healey like guitar slinger James who has his own bag of developing tricks.

Thursday 2nd CHEAP THRILL (The Club). Looking for a blistering, young, undiscovered, no cover guitar hero-in-the-making to replace Ian Moore? Try his former bass player, the prodigious 20 year old John Strahm, with his new big guitar sound blues-rock outfit, also here on the 10th, 16th and 24th.

Saturday 4th TEHRANI FAMILY BENEFIT (Chicago House, afternoon). Jimmy LaFave, The Blue Devils and maybe more turn out in support of the family of an Iranian immigrant killed in an armed robbery, which still owes money for the funeral, Circle K's big $700 pay out not having gone very far.

Saturday 4th BAD LIVERS (Headliners East). The new name of superpicker Danny Barnes' eclectic acoustic trio.

Monday 6th BETTY ELDERS' INVITATIONAL MIKE NIGHT (Chicago House). The Chicago HouseFest runs all week (see 8th, 9th, 10th & 11th below) but as the majority of the performers would rate PREviews on their own account, we'll simply recap line-ups which speak for themselves. Tonight, hostess with the mostest Queen B's guests are Marcia Ball, David Rodriguez, Austin Lounge Lizards, Therapy Sisters and Emily Kaiz.

Wednesday 8th JIMMY LAFAVE & THE OKLAHOMA CONNECTION (Chicago House). Another HouseFest biggie, though the Connection is limited to Gene Williams, Lillian Standfield and The Blue Devils, plus non-Okies Christine Albert, Barb Donovan and Michael Elwood & Beth Galiger.

Wednesday 8th OLIN MURRELL'S MUSIC EMPORIUM (Saxon). KFIT talk show host OM's weekly pick 'n' grin sessions are unpredictable, but this one is anchored by the corruscating David Rodriguez and seldom heard sideman supreme Scott Neubert singing his original material.

Wednesday 8th SUN RECORDS NITE (Continental). John X, Ted Roddy, 2 Hoots and Charlie Sexton take a crack at the classic sound. Unfortunately High Noon, masters of this particular art, are out of town.

Thursday 9th VARIETY HOTHOUSE (Chicago House). A HouseFest mixture of theater, performance art and music by Butch Hancock, Jimmie Dale Gilmore, Chris Thomas, Diana Jones, Doug Hudson and Susan Colton.

Thursday 9th BOBBY RADCLIFF (Pearl's). Great White Blues Hope, Blacktop's incredible, ripping, Buddy Guy like DC guitarist with a powerhouse, soulful voice.

Friday 10th HEADLINERS SHOWCASE (Chicago House). HouseFest doubleheader of Austin's two reigning male singer-songwriter stars, David Rodriguez and Jimmy LaFave.

Saturday 11th DAYLIGHT DYNAMITE! (Chicago House). Cutting AquaFest a break, the HouseFest closes with an afternoon show featuring Tish Hinojosa, Betty Elders, Jim Montgomery, The Blue Devils, Pam & Pipo Hernandez, Beth Freeman, Greg Cox and Shanna Norton of Chaski.

Saturday 11th TEXAS TORNADOS + TEXANA DAMES + JUNIOR BROWN (AquaFest). Tough call opposite The Neville Brothers and Linda Ronstadt & Aaron Neville, but we have to go for Freddy Fender, Doug Sahm, Flaco Jimenez and Augie Meyers's new partnership (see Reviews), supported by the dazzling, eclectic Dames and the always astonishing Junior B, wielder of the unique doubleneck guit-steel.

Saturday 11th KIMBERLY M'CARVER + BETTY ELDERS (Cactus Cafe). The perfect escape from AquaFest, a pairing of Houston and Austin's best female singer-songwriters, both former MC MVPs.

Sunday 12th ZOID'S LEAVING PARTY WITH PONTY BONE & THE SQUEEZETONES (Hole In The Wall). Slightly premature send off for the Hole's music booker, Steve Hiltz, soon to be Dr Hiltz of UT Arlington's Philosophy Dept, whose answering machine was one of Austin's most reliable talent filters. The silver-haired squeezemeister and his rocking road warriors do the honors.

Sunday 12th TEXAS LOVERS TOUR: DALLAS-FORT WORTH NIGHT (Antone's). PeeWee Records (see Stout Fellow feature) presents part of its roster of grassroots Texas blues, headlined by the phenomenal Beverly Stauber, a rockabilly shouter with a voice like early Brenda Lee or Wanda Jackson, plus Rev Horton Heat, Cold Blue Steel with Mark Pollack, Marc Benno and The Midnites.

Monday 13th TEXAS LOVERS TOUR: TRIANGLE TRASH NIGHT (Antone's). Second night of PeeWee's grassroots blues bash, with the Beaumont-Port Arthur-Orange contingent, featuring Floyd Moore, Paul Orta & The Kingpins, Walter T Higgs & The Shufflepigs, Billy Bayou Cross, Uncle John Turner, BA Jones & Kathy Murray and guests including Clifford 'Triangle Trashman' Antone on bass.

Tuesday 14th KENT FINLAY/ERIC BLAKELY (Headliners East/Austin Outhouse). Speed the parting host—Kent is special guest at Eric's weekly Outhouse Open Stage, Eric is featured performer at Kent's weekly Headliners Songwriter's Showcase, so look out for two hustling vans passing each other at MLK and Guadalupe.

Thursday 16th ELVIS NIGHT (Pearl's). Deeply reverant tribute to The King, with Will Indian and The E Factor Band, featuring Elvis impersonator Victor Solimine, a shrine and an authentic junk food buffet presided over by Presley Gastronomy scholar Clay Jackson.

Thursday 16th WC CLARK BLUES REVUE (Antone's). The Revue, recently back from a triumphant, SRO tour, is always reliable, particularly with newish sidemen Mike Kindred on organ and Poco Falcon on drums. But tonight should be outstanding as they're joined by WC's cousin, LP 'Big Pete' Pearson, Phoenix's top-rated blues singer, a veteran of the early Austin blues scene.

Saturday 18th SCHOLZ GARTEN'S 124TH BIRTHDAY PARTY (Scholz Garten). No headliner announced, but hardly necessary with the Austin debut of Jimmy LaFave's reconstituted Night Tribe, his kickass Okie R&B band, plus The Rhythm Rats, The Wurst Band and more. Guaranteed not to be the shambles of the last, infamous birthday party. Sunday 19th MEALS ON WHEELS BENEFIT (LA Zona Rosa, afternoon). Terrific good cause line up of Jimmie Dale Gilmore, Christine Albert, Steve Fromholz, Lillian Standfield, Scott Neubert and more, leaving time to get up to Antone's later for Butch or stick around for local conjunto band Los Supremos.

Wednesday 22nd 3 BALLS OF FIRE + HERMAN THE GERMAN & DAS COWBOY (Continental). Monster trash twang night with The Shadows inspired Balls and tone arm meister Herman who does a killer Apache and great surf polkas.

Saturday 25th CJ CHENIER & THE RED HOT LOUISIANA BAND (Antone's). CJ and Uncle Cleveland took up the Zydeco flame from Clifton and are moving onward and upward with it.

Thursday 30th ZYDECO & BLUES FESTIVAL (Scholz Garten). Watch out for announcements of the Garten's mammoth three day, 16 band Labor Day wingding.

Friday 31st HIGH NOON (Manchaca Volunteer Fire Hall). Authentically original and classic rockabilly from the masters, plus an awesome fish fry and what are reputed to be the best homemade pies in Texas. West of Manchaca on FM 1626.

Friday 31st KERRVILLE TOO (Quiet Valley Ranch, Kerrville). See featurette for the magnetic power of this reprise on the Big One.

Total, Uncompromising Commitment to CUSTOMER SUPPORT

...that is what Macintosh Support Services is all about.

CLASSES, TUTORIALS & CONSULTATIONS

"Our classes are organized around the tasks our students want to accomplish."

REPAIRS & SERVICE CONTRACTS

"A pool of rental and usage equipment enables our unique loaner program."

PUBLISHING, SCANNING & FILE CONVERSIONS

"We believe that the best Macintosh usage center in Austin shouldn't have to be the most expensive."

NEW & USED SALES AND RENTALS

"Our principal focus is to build long-lasting relationships with our clients, not just sell them a computer and forget them."

SIERRA DYNAMICS... A HISTORY OF ESTABLISHED SUPPORT

"Sierra Dynamics has been providing training, service, and support for the Macintosh since its first release in 1984."
